DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On April 26, 2016, Laura Kerrin ("petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act" or "Program"). Petitioner alleged that she received the Hepatitis B vaccine in her left shoulder on January 20, 2015, and subsequently suffered from injuries that were caused in fact by the vaccination. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit ("SPU") of the Office of Special Masters.

On August 8, 2016, the undersigned issued a ruling on entitlement finding petitioner entitled to compensation for a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA"). On September 29, 2016, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation ("Proffer") indicating petitioner should be awarded $75,998.08, representing compensation for lost earnings ($998.08) and actual and projected pain and suffering reduced to net present value ($75,000.00). Proffer at 1-2. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. at 1. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $75,998.08, representing compensation for lost earnings ($998.08), and pain and suffering ($75,000.00), in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Laura Kerrin. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
